ADVISORY INFORMATION

IMPORTANT: When applying this product under the terms of this Extension of Authorisation, comply with any resistance guidance or restrictions stated on the product label.

Total reliance on one pesticide will hasten the development of resistance. Pesticides of different chemical types or alternative control measures should be included in the planned programme. Alternating with different modes of action is a recognised anti-resistance strategy.

This Extension of Authorisation relates to the use of 'Gibb Plus' (M17251) as a plant growth regulator for the reduction of fruit russetting on pear and quince. Application is via conventional hydraulic sprayer (including orchard sprayers and air assisted sprayers) in a minimum of 200 litres water per hectare between April and August. Apply the first spray immediately after the completion of petal fall, followed by three further sprays at 10 days intervals.

This Extension of Authorisation has been reissued to remove the phrase 'This product must be used within 12 months from the date of manufacture printed on the label/container' from the advisory information.
